

2012 Legal Industry Council Newsletter Sponsors

Two years ago, the board members of the Legal Industry Council discussed a new concept of offering service providers to the legal community the opportunity to be sponsors for our quarterly newsletter. The program very well received and we continued it in 2011 – this time with adding a newsletter dedicated to our sponsors.

We are pleased that each year we have added new sponsors to our newsletter. Many people have found the list of sponsors to be valuable when looking for service providers to the legal industry. Each of our sponsors has been highly recommended by people within the Council. Please take a moment to read about our sponsors and to visit the websites provided. When the opportunity arises, please support those who support the Council. If you know of companies that may want to be sponsors for next year, please contact Holly Evers (hevers@foleyhoag.com). This is a great opportunity for companies within the legal market to advertise to law firm facility managers.

We thank our sponsors for supporting the Legal Industry Council and look forward to continuing our relationships with them.
