Legal Industry Council of IFMA

PURPOSE AND MISSION

The Legal Industry Council of IFMA strives to enhance the value of IFMA membership for facility professionals working within the legal industry.

The Council offers members the opportunity to network, share information and discuss the unique challenges of the high profile legal office environment.

The Council's online tools keep you connected 24/7 to facility management issues in the legal industry, enabling you to join discussions on topics like space planning and utilization, creative office service solutions, outsourcing, regulatory information, developing space trends, emerging technology, new software solutions, and much more.

EDUCATION

The Council promotes its members' education:

- ✓ Helping members work towards professional designations (CFM, SFP, FMP).
- ✓ Hosting study groups and providing financial aid toward testing fees for those who participate in Council led study sessions and complete the coursework for a certification.
- ✓ Providing frequent webinars and teleconference round-tables on a variety of educational issues of interest to Facility Managers at law firms.
- ✓ Offering scholarships to qualifying members for attendance at World Workplace.

Membership Benefits and Resources

MEMBERSHIP

The Legal Industry Council welcomes IFMA professional members who work in law firms or in the legal departments of corporations, government agencies and academic institutions.

Established in January 1991, the LIC has over 100 members worldwide.

LIC members represent some of the top legal firms in the business, including 45 firms listed on The Lawyer Global 100.

Electronic Discussion Group: The Council offers a members-only email list through "Google Groups" that allows participants to communicate with other FM professionals.

Meetings and Teleconferences: The Council sponsors meetings of local groups around the country for facilities professionals at law firms. If you are interested in hosting one of these at your law firm, or want information on organizing a group in your area, please contact the LIC president.

Membership Directory: Membership information is available online to current LIC members by logging into your IFMA.com account.

Networking: Connect with a worldwide network of FM professionals in the legal industry. Utilize our network to gain knowledge, receive feedback, and benchmark your firm with its peers.

Newsletter: Get the latest information on upcoming events, legal industry news about peers at law firms, and more through the Council's quarterly newsletter.

Website: Log on to www.ifmalic.org for council information and events, archived newsletters, industry articles and more.
